• Also, be prepared to share your TED Talk Slideshows during the week of November 27.

• If you have an old shirt or an art smock, could you please bring that for the week of November 27? I have a messy project for my students to make during that week.

Student in the Spotlight

is Jaylen from Mahone
He had several assignments that he was behind on. So, one day after school he worked on his assignments at home. He was all caught up by the next day. Way to go Jaylen!

Mrs. C's Weekly Blog: All Pitch Slideshows should've been submitted by the end of this week. Also, there are still students that aren't reading all the directions on their assignments. Please note, several assignments have more than one thing that you have to do in order to turn in a complete assignment. One more reminder, please edit your work before you submit it. Enjoy your Friday off.
